Sliding Fee Scale

Sagewood Counseling desires that therapy be affordable enough that people would be able to choose counseling services without a financial barrier. The standard fee for a 50-minute session is $130. If the standard fee is a hardship for you, the table below contains guidelines for what you might pay depending on your household income. However, sometimes there are extenuating circumstances, and those can be discussed with your therapist with the hope of arriving at a mutually agreed upon fee. The primary goal is to make therapy affordable enough that you can commit to a course of treatment and stick with it.

If you would like to submit receipts for therapy services to your insurance company for possible reimbursement, you may do so. This does not affect your fee.

Please circle the appropriate fee for your household income.

Couples should use their combined incomes.

Income	Fee
$30,000/year and under	$68
$31,000-$40,000/year	$78
$41,000-$50,000/year	$88
$51,000-$60,000/year	$98
$61,000-$70,000/year	$108
$71,000-$80,000/year	$118
$81,000+/year	$130

All appointments that are cancelled or rescheduled for non-emergency reasons with less than 24-hour notice, and appointments missed without notice, will be charged the regular fee for that appointment.

Late cancellation and no-show charges cannot be billed to insurance or paid for with an HSA or FSA.
